

Negotiating a new publishing contract with Wiley-Blackwell
Report for Summer Policy Council Meeting
July 25, 2010 - Seoul, Korea

At the 2010 Winter Policy Council meeting ad-hoc committee for negotiating was appointed consisting of Brian Dangerfield, Roberta Spencer, David Andersen, Deborah Andersen and George Richardson.

This committee has reviewed in detail the proposed contract; it has been sent back to Wiley-Blackwell with some questions. In the absence of a final contract, the committee cannot at this time make a recommendation to the Policy Council. A summary of the contract contents will be emailed to Policy Council Members when the information is available. We anticipate an electronic vote after the face-to-face Summer Policy Council Meeting.

If a Policy Council Member is interested in reviewing the entire contract, please send an email message to Roberta to request a copy be sent. Please note the contract is strictly confidential and only available to PC Members.

Sincerely,
The Negotiating Committee:
George Richardson, Chair and VP Publications
David Andersen
Deborah Andersen
Brian Dangerfield
Roberta Spencer
